

Symposium on "CYBER ASPECTS OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY"

Speakers:

Prof. Claus Kreß, Director of the Institute, University of Cologne: Welcome Word

Markus P. Beham, University of Passau: "State Responsibility for Cyber Activities"

Céline Braumann, University of Vienna: "Enforcement Jurisdiction in Cyberspace"

Tamás Hoffmann, Corvinus University of Budapest: "Cyber Actions and the Existence of an Armed Conflict in International Humanitarian Law"

Milan Lipovský, Charles University, Prague: "Cyber-meddling in Elections and the Principle of Non-intervention"

Karolina Wierczyńska, Institute of Law Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences: "The Berkeley Protocol and Digital Evidence in front of the ICC"

19 May, 2022 from 9:30 a.m. to 14:30 p.m. The event will be held in hybrid form, visitors may connect via Zoom link sent upon request. RSVP by sending an email to mlipovsk@uni-koeln.de

