

Dr. Mohamed M. El Zeidy has worked as Senior Legal Advisor to the President of the Kosovo Specialist Chambers (“KSC”) since 2019 and Legal Officer for the Pre-Trial Division of the International Criminal Court (“Court”) since 2007. He participated in most situations before the Court (Uganda, Central African Republic, Kenya, Darfur-Sudan, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Comoros, Mali and Libya). Prior to his positions at the KSC and the Court (1997-2007), he served as a chief judge at the South Cairo Court, Egyptian Ministry of Justice, senior public prosecutor and a public prosecutor, at the Office of the Prosecutor General of Egypt. Before joining the public prosecution office (1993-1997), he served as lieutenant, and first lieutenant in the Egyptian Police, Ministry of the Interior. Dr. El Zeidy holds a Ph.D. in international criminal law and an LL.M. in international human rights law with First Class Honors (National University of Ireland, Galway), an LL.M. in public law (Cairo University), a licence en droit and bachelor of Police Sciences (Police College-Cairo). He has participated and presented in many international conferences. He has also lectured at several universities and institutes in Europe and is widely published in the area of international criminal law both in English and in Arabic. He is the author of, inter alia, the “Principle of complementarity in international criminal law” (Martinus Nijhoff, 2008) and co-editor of “The International Criminal Court and Complementarity: From theory to Practice” (Cambridge University Press, 2011) as well as many academic chapters and journal articles. He is a member of the International Association of Penal Law, Egyptian Society of Criminal Law, Advisory Council of the Institute for International Peace and Security Law and member of the editorial boards of the Criminal Law Forum: An International Journal, and the International Criminal Law Review. In 2017, according to Ministerial Decree 1263(2017), he has been included on the list of arbitrators of the Egyptian Ministry of Justice.